

Add the missing inverted commas.

The teacher explained, A three - digit number is worth more than a two - digit number.

Dad called out, The cake smells like it is burning!

Tick the sentences which have been written correctly.

Joel shouted, "I'm going to be late!" ☐

He mumbled quietly, "the cup is in the drawer." ☐

Sam instructed, "Jump higher." ☐

Sharon said, "I'm too tired." ☐

Rewrite this conversation using inverted commas.

Do you like pears?

Sam

Tim

Nope!

Write your own sentence using inverted commas.

Add the missing inverted commas.

The teacher explained, "A three - digit number is worth more than a two - digit number."

Dad called out, "The cake smells like it is burning!"

Tick the sentences which have been written correctly.

Joel shouted, "I'm going to be late!"

☐

He mumbled quietly, "the cup is in the drawer."

☐

Sam instructed, "Jump higher."

☒

Sharon said, "I'm too tired."

☒

Rewrite this conversation using inverted commas.

Do you like pears?

Sam

Tim

Nope!

Example

"Do you like pears?" Sam asked. "Nope!" replied Tim.

Write your own sentence using inverted commas.
