

Verbs

Activity One:

For each sentence below, identify the verb/s before rewriting the sentence with a new verb/s. For each one, change the verb so it has a similar meaning.

- 1) She learned more and more of her father's art.
- 2) They looked at each other as if they were strangers.
- 3) After he'd settled Hamlet down for the night, Chulak called at the Firework-Maker's workshop.
- 4) Lalchand had the uneasy feeling that he'd been tricked.
- 5) Lalchand hurried after her at once.
- 6) The White Elephant was being led to his new owner.
- 7) Flags flapped and banners waved in the sunlight.
- 8) He clapped his hands, and the servants bowed and scampered away.
- 9) "Good idea," whispered Chulak, beaming.

Activity Two:

Create your own sentences in sets of three where the verb changes each time and changes the image of action with it.

e.g.

John walked down the street.

John strolled down the street.

John crawled down the street.
