

Circle the pronouns.

I
you
hers
they their we
their

Cross out the repeated noun and replace it with a pronoun.

~~her~~ Pam decided to order chips. Pam loved chips because Pam's mum used to make them for Pam when Pam was younger. ~~her~~ ~~she~~

Diya and Tia said, "It's Diya and Tia's turn on the swings!"

Rewrite this so it is cohesive and avoids repetition.

Leanna and Tia were walking to school. They decided to walk to the shop, where they met Peter and Paul. They then ran back home to get their PE bags. After a while, they left the house to meet their friends. They ran in excitement when they saw them. They had missed them!

Leanna and Tia were walking to school. They decided to walk to the shop, where they met Peter and Paul. Leanna and Tia then ran back home to get their PE bags. After a while, they left the house to meet their friends. They ran in excitement when they saw them. The girls/ Leanna and Tia had missed them!

Example