

Add an apostrophe in the correct place. Check if the nouns are singular or plural.

1. The dogs food had spilt all over the place!
(plural)
2. The mens uniform had not been ordered yet.
3. The childs book had fallen out of her bag.
4. A womans purse was left at the counter.

Show the plural and singular with an apostrophe for possession.

	singular	plural

Write a sentence using the noun below. Use an apostrophe for possession.

duck (singular)

penguins (plural)

Both sentences use a plural apostrophe.
Explain why they are in different places.

The ninjas' weapons were extremely dangerous.

The women's toilets were being cleaned.

Add an apostrophe in the correct place. Check if the nouns are singular or plural.

1. The dogs' food had spilt all over the place!
(plural)
2. The men's uniform had not been ordered yet.
3. The child's book had fallen out of her bag.
4. A woman's purse was left at the counter.

Show the plural and singular with an apostrophe for possession.

	singular	plural
	bear's	bears'
	child's	children's
	girl's	girls'

Write a sentence using the noun below. Use an apostrophe for possession.

duck (singular)

penguins (plural)

Both sentences use a plural apostrophe.
Explain why they are in different places.

The ninjas' weapons were extremely dangerous.

The women's toilets were being cleaned.

For plural possession, you place an apostrophe after the s. If you have an irregular plural word, such as children, women, or men, you place the apostrophe before the s.